

Final Conference of MARGIN (Budapest)

Meeting venue:

Hotel Mercure Budapest Buda
Krisztina krt. 41-43, 1013 (Budapest)

3rd April

12:00

Registration

13:30

Opening ceremony György Vókó (Director of National Institute of Criminology) and László Korinek (Hungarian Academy of Sciences)

[Coffee break and networking]

15:00

State-of-the-art: more than 15 years of research in the field of insecurity at the EU level: Chaired by Krzysztof Krajewski (Jagiellonian University)

Multi-method approach to study insecurity in urban settings (MARGIN project) Riccardo Valente (University of Barcelona)

Five European cities and their anxieties: The case of Amsterdam, Budapest, Hamburg, Kraków and Vienna. A European Project Klaus Sessar (Universität Hamburg)

Rules, Expectations and Security through Privacy-Enhanced Convenient Technologies (RESPECT project) Sveva Avvenuto (Institute for Research on Population and Social Policies Italian Council of Research)

Comparative Police Studies in the EU (COMPOSITE project) Stojanka Mirceva (Faculty of Security, Skopje, Republic of Macedonia)

Discussion

[Coffee break]

Universitat de Barcelona (UB) --- National Institute of Criminology (OKRI) --- Institut national des hautes études de la sécurité et de la justice (INHESJ) --- Università degli Studi di Milano Bicocca (UNIMIB)--- University College London (UCL) -
-- EuroCrime Research Training and Consultancy srl (ECR) --- Departament d'Interior, Generalitat de Catalunya (INT)

17:10

State-of-the-art: more than 15 years of research in the field of insecurity at the EU level (follow-up):

Chaired by Tünde Barabás (National Institute of Criminology)

Police Training Skills (PROTASIS project) Silvia Ciotti (EuroCrime)

Justice and security in the intercultural settings: Lessons learnt from the EU funded FP7 research project
ALTERNATIVE Sanja Copic (Victimology Society of Serbia)

Experiences from the European Forum of Urban Security (EFUS) Carla Napolano (European Forum Urban Security)

Discussion

[Dinner]

4th April

09:30

Subjective insecurity and its roots in place Chaired by Enzo Mingione (University of Milano-Biocca)

A project on local safety and security in Slovenia (2016-2018) Gorazd Mesko, Urska Pirnat and Andrej Kastrin (University of Maribor, Slovenia)

The fear drop and fear change in Rotterdam: the need for a new narrative on public security Marnix Eysink Smeets (Inholland University of Applied Sciences)

Consent in Context: Legitimacy as an Individual-and Neighbourhood-Level Predictor of Crime Jonathan Jackson (London School of Economics)

Fear of crime as an obstacle for active mobility and the walkable city Laura Vozmediano (Universidad del País Vasco)

Discussion

Institutional perspectives on crime prevention and restorative justice Chaired by Silvia Ciotti (EuroCrime)

Exploring the potential of Restorative Justice: Challenges and dilemmas Vassiliki Artinopoulou (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences)

A user led approach to radicalisation: An alternative vision for social cohesion Theo Gavrielides (IARS International Institute)

Mediation and Restorative Justice in Prison settings Tünde Barabás (National Institute of Criminology)

Desistance and Restorative Justice. Mechanisms for Desisting from Crime with Restorative Justice Practices Veronika Hofinger (Institut für Rechts und Kriminalsoziologie)

Restorative justice and intimate partner violence, a security issue? Annemieke Wolthuis (European Forum for Restorative Justice)

Discussion

[Coffee break]

11:45

Current advances in survey-based measures of crime-related issues *Chaired by Spencer
Chainey (University College London)*

Relaunching the International Crime Victims Survey (ICVS) Marcelo Aebi (University of Lausanne)

Victimization and Fear of Crime in a German City (Bochum). First results and consequences for improving survey-based approaches to measure perception of insecurity Thomas Feltes (Universität Bochum)

MARGIN survey: assessing the impact of self-perceived social exclusion and neighbourhood characteristics on perceived insecurity Riccardo Valente and Sergi Valera (University of Barcelona)

Crime and Victimization Surveys as a Tool for policy-makers: the case of Barcelona *Marta Isach
Barrionuevo (Municipality of Barcelona)*

Discussion

Good Practices in reducing crime and the perception of insecurity *Chaired by Diego Torrente
(University of Barcelona)*

Evidence-based practices informing the reform of the Justice system in Portugal *Luísa Proença
(Ministry of Justice of Portugal)*

Behavioral Science and policing, 6 experiments Alex Murray (West Midlands Police, UK)

The relationship between police forces and minorities Lola Vallès (Institut de Seguridat Pública de Catalunya)

Promising practices on homicide rate reduction in American countries Karen Bozicovich (Organization of American State)

The Seniors' Crime Victimization Survey in Catalonia Montse Aguilera (Dept. of Interior of Catalonia)

Discussion

Qualitative analysis in the field of insecurity Chaired by Filippo Balistreri (EuroCrime)

Detaining the “dangerous” migrant Giuseppe Campesi (University of Bari)

“It can happen, it will happen, it happened”. Exploring insecurity experiences through qualitative interviews Inês S. Guedes (School of Criminology of the University of Porto)

Perceived insecurity in affluent vs marginalized communities across five EU countries Sonia Stefanizzi and Valeria Verdolini (University of Milano-Bicocca)

Gender and vulnerability Nuria Balada (Catalan Institute for Women)

Discussion

[Lunch break]

15:00

Current advances in survey-based measures of crime-related issues (follow-up) Chaired by Cyril Rizk (Observatoire national de la délinquance et des réponses pénales)

Anti-social behaviors and perceived security in Catalan Victimization Surveys) Marta Murrià Sangenis (Institute of Regional and Metropolitan Studies of Barcelona)

Looking back at the French « Cadre de vie et sécurité » survey experience (2007 – 2017) Cyril Rizk (Observatoire national de la délinquance et des réponses pénales)

Recent developments and trends in the Crime Survey of England and Wales Mark Bangs (UK Office for National Statistics)

Project PDP4. Crime victimisation evaluation and policy measures. Case study on Romania Valentina Vasile (Institute of National Economy)

Discussion

Subjective insecurity and its roots in place (follow-up) Chaired by Kate Bowers (University College London)

Signal crimes and diagnosing the causes and consequences of neighbourhood insecurities Martin Innes (University of Cardiff)

The importance of addressing situational factors when analyzing perceptions of crime Reka Solymosi (University of Manchester)

Small area estimation of worry about crime at regional level in Europe: Some Findings from the European Social Survey 5 David Buil Gil and Angelo Moretti (University of Manchester)

Fear of crime, collective efficacy, and disorder perception: from the field to the lab Carla S. Cardoso (School of Criminology of the University of Porto)

Discussion

5th April

09:30

Good Practices in reducing crime and the perception of insecurity (follow-up) Chaired by Francesc Guillen (Dept. of Interior of Catalonia)

The subject of security politics Tamar Pitch (University of Perugia)

Aspects of a more just distribution of safety and security in cities: Residential segregation, milieu-specific perception patterns and adaptive planning Kristina Seidelsohn (Freie Universität Berlin)

Is reducing insecurity a good idea? Sebastian Roché (CNRS-University of Grenoble-Alpes)

The shadow on the wall: a (safe) dose of science to understand perceptions of insecurity Theodora Ziamou (Enlexis, France)

Discussion

[Coffee break]

12:00

Setting the future goals in security research Chaired by Antonio Bartolomé (University of Barcelona)

Building cohesive and safer communities through the role of local communities Gian Guido Nobili (Security Policies and Local Police Office, Emilia-Romagna Region)

How to better assess police performance: the case of France Mathieu Zagrodzki (Centre of Sociological Studies on Law and Penal Institutions)

Production of knowledge and transfer of evidence in a contentious public policy field Georgios Kolliarakis (Frankfurt University)

Discussion

13:50

Closing Antonio Bartolomé (University of Barcelona)

[Farewell drink and coffees]